INTRODUCING BROKER AGREEMENT

QMMFX LIMITED

English Translation — Part 1 of the Source Agreement (Preamble and Articles 1–4)

Version: 1.0 | Last Updated: [Date to be inserted]

PREAMBLE

This Introducing Broker Agreement (hereinafter the “Agreement”) sets forth the terms and conditions governing the cooperation between QMMFX LIMITED, registration number L15620, incorporated in the Autonomous Island of Anjouan, Union of the Comoros, operating under the trade name QMMFX (hereinafter, as applicable, the “Company,” the “Broker,” or “QMMFX”), on the one hand, and any natural or legal person who has applied to join the QMMFX Introducing Broker Program and accepted this Agreement (hereinafter the “Introducer” or “IB”), on the other hand.

This Agreement shall become binding upon the parties once the applicant has accepted it electronically and the Company has approved the application for cooperation.

Submitting an IB application, selecting the option to accept this Agreement, clicking a confirmation button, or using any other electronic method designated by the Company to indicate acceptance constitutes the IB’s express confirmation that the IB has read, understood, and fully accepted all provisions of this Agreement and any subsequent amendments made in accordance with its terms.

Acceptance of this Agreement alone does not confer an unconditional right to obtain IB status. The Company retains discretion to approve or reject any application.

The IB acknowledges having had sufficient opportunity to review this Agreement before accepting it and assumes responsibility for determining the laws and regulations applicable in the jurisdiction in which the IB resides or operates.

ARTICLE 1 — DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

Unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the meanings set out below:

1.1. Company “Company” means QMMFX LIMITED, registration number L15620.

1.2. Broker or QMMFX Means the QMMFX trading brand and the services, systems, platforms, and infrastructure provided by the Company or persons authorized by it.

1.3. IB or Introducing Broker Any natural or legal person whose application to join the Introducing Broker Program has been approved by the Company and who is authorized to introduce prospective clients to QMMFX in accordance with this Agreement.

1.4. Referred Client A person introduced to QMMFX through an IB’s referral link, referral code, campaign, or other identifiable referral tool and attributed to that IB in accordance with the Company’s records and systems. A mere assertion by an IB that a person was referred, without registration or confirmation in the Company’s systems, shall not create any entitlement in respect of that client or any related commissions.

1.5. Sub-IB A natural or legal person linked to an upstream IB within a multi-level IB program structure, in accordance with conditions established by the Company.

1.6. IB Commission Any amount, reward, rebate, revenue share, or financial benefit payable to an IB under the agreed commission structure and the Company's current policies in respect of eligible activities of referred clients or a Sub-IB structure.

1.7. Eligible Trade A trade deemed eligible to generate commission under this Agreement, the commission structure assigned to the IB, the Company's trading policies, and QMMFX control systems.

1.8. IB Panel The dedicated electronic interface made available by the Company for managing IB activities, viewing permitted information and reports, reviewing commissions, managing referral structures, and accessing related services.

1.9. IB Wallet The internal wallet assigned to the IB in which approved and payable commissions are recorded in accordance with the Company's systems.

1.10. Trading Account Any live trading account opened by a client with QMMFX that permits trading in financial instruments offered by the Broker.

1.11. Excluded Accounts Accounts excluded from IB commission calculations under the Company's current policy. At the time this Agreement is drafted, Demo and Cent accounts are excluded from the IB commission payment program.

1.12. Official Website The official QMMFX website at qmmfx.com and any other domains or subdomains formally designated by the Company.

1.13. Official Company Documents This Agreement, the Client Agreement, trading policies, Terms of Use, AML/KYC policies, Privacy Policy, official notices, and other documents and regulations published or communicated by the Company to users and IBs.

1.14. Business Day A day on which the Company and the financial systems relevant to the service in question operate in the ordinary course.

1.15. Meaning of "Including" Where this Agreement uses "including," "includes," or similar expressions, the listed items are illustrative and not exhaustive.

ARTICLE 2 — PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF COOPERATION

2.1. This Agreement establishes the terms of cooperation between QMMFX and the IB for introducing prospective clients to the Broker's services and, where enabled, developing a Sub-IB network under a structure approved by the Company.

2.2. The IB may introduce prospective clients to QMMFX using referral links, unique codes, permitted marketing activities, or other methods that do not violate this Agreement or applicable laws.

2.3. The IB's role is generally limited to introductions and authorized marketing. Membership in the Introducing Broker Program does not, in itself, authorize the IB to provide financial services, manage investments, receive client funds, guarantee profits, conclude agreements on behalf of QMMFX, or create obligations for the Company.

2.4. This Agreement does not oblige the Company to accept all clients referred by the IB. The Company may approve, reject, restrict, or discontinue account applications or services to any client in accordance with internal policies, legal requirements, KYC/AML obligations, risk management, or other legitimate considerations.

2.5. Trading services offered by QMMFX may include Forex, metals, indices, digital-asset/crypto-based instruments, and other instruments offered by the Company from time to time. Availability may vary by account type, jurisdiction, market conditions, liquidity providers, legal restrictions, or Company policy.

2.6. Membership in the IB Program does not confer any permanent or guaranteed right to continued cooperation, a particular commission rate, or terms equivalent to those granted to other IBs.

ARTICLE 3 — IB APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE REQUIREMENTS

3.1. Any natural or legal person wishing to act as an IB must submit an application through the channels designated by the Company.

3.2. The applicant must provide all requested information and documentation accurately, completely, and in an up-to-date form.

3.3. The Company may request additional information or documentation as necessary to assess an IB application.

3.4. The applicant is responsible for ensuring that acting as an IB is lawful in the country or jurisdiction of residence, incorporation, or operation. Admission to the IB Program by QMMFX shall not be construed as confirmation that the applicant's activities are lawful in every jurisdiction.

3.5. Throughout the cooperation, the IB shall: (a) keep account and identity information accurate and current; (b) comply with identity verification and anti-money laundering requirements requested by the Company; (c) provide supplementary information and documents upon request; (d) refrain from activities in jurisdictions where such activities are unlawful or restricted; and (e) use the IB Panel and related facilities solely for authorized purposes.

3.6. The Company may accept or reject an IB application based on its commercial, operational, legal, compliance, or risk-management assessment.

3.7. Approval of an IB application does not constitute approval of all of the IB's marketing methods, claims, websites, social-media accounts, or activities. The IB remains responsible for compliance with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 — NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE PARTIES

4.1. The IB is an independent contracting party in its cooperation with QMMFX. No employment, employer–employee, partnership, legal agency, civil partnership, joint venture, or franchise relationship is created between the IB and the Company.

4.2. Without the Company's express written authorization, the IB shall not: (a) represent itself as a legal or official representative of QMMFX; (b) conclude contracts in the name of or on behalf of QMMFX; (c) create obligations for the Company; (d) alter the Company's trading, financial, or legal terms; (e) make promises to clients that are not contained in the Company's Official Documents; or (f) assume liabilities or debts on behalf of the Company.

4.3. The IB shall bear all costs, taxes, permits, personnel expenses, equipment costs, and other expenses relating to its activities, unless expressly agreed otherwise in a separate written agreement.

4.4. The IB shall not use titles that suggest ownership, management, legal representation, or control of QMMFX unless expressly authorized in writing by the Company.

4.5. IB status is a contractual privilege that may continue subject to compliance with this Agreement. It shall not be interpreted as conferring a proprietary right, a permanent right over clients, or a guarantee of continued cooperation.

End of Part 1. This document is a translation of the preamble and Articles 1–4 only; it is not the complete 73-article Agreement.